ABOUT ME

I started my career in animal care as a Veterinary Technologist, which taught me patience, precision, and empathy. Over time, I shifted into the digital space where I now combine those same values with my skills in social media management, design, and administration. I am detail-oriented and reliable Executive Virtual Assistant and Social Media Manager with a passion for helping businesses grow through creativity, organization, and consistency. I'm now looking for a new opportunity to learn, grow, and make a positive impact.
